MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Title 18 U.S.C. §3142, governs release of persons awaiting trial and permit courts to release those persons unless the judicial officer finds that the person is likely to flee or pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community. Defendant MATTA asserts that there is a clear and convincing evidence that he is not a flight risk or that he does not pose a danger to the community.

1 Defendant MATTA is not a flight risk. He considers Guam his home. His
2 girlfriend, Defendant MESA, resides here on Guam. When released, Defendant
3 MATTA will reside with his girlfriend at 111 Chalan Balako, Dededo, Guam 96929.

4 Defendant MATTA also asserts he is not a danger to the community. Title 18
5 U.S.C. §§3142 and 3143 do not provide a bright-line answer to what constitutes "danger"
6 to the community. However, Congress did not declare that the community is entitled to 7 assurances of freedom from all harm and a court cannot detain a defendant on the mere 8 apprehension of danger of harm. Rather, the court's inquiry must focus on whether by 9 conditions of release the community can reasonably be assured of safety. In this case,
10 the Court can feel secure the community is not at risk should Defendant MATTA be 11 released. Conditions of release can certainly be fashioned that will ensure the protection
12 of the community.

13 This Court has many options rather than pre-sentencing incarceration. It can 14 order daily appearances before pretrial services, electronic monitoring or other forms of 15 curfew, full-time employment, third-party custody, drug testing, bail, and/or a property
16 bond. In the instant case, this Court can also order a bond secured by Defendant
17 MATTA in his girlfriend's home.

18 Moreover, there are many sanctions available to the Court should Defendant
19 MATTA fail to comply with the terms and conditions of his supervised release. Under 18
20 U.S.C. §3146, Defendant MATTA can be given a prison sentence apart from a
21 consecutive to the sentence Defendant MATTA may receive if he is convicted of the 22 underlying offense.

23 In addition, under 18 U.S.C. §3147, if the defendant commits a crime while on 24 release, he will receive a sentence consecutive to the underlying offense. Section 25

1 3147is designed to deter those who would pose a risk to community safety by committing
2 another crime when released and also to punish those who indeed are convicted of 3 another offense.

4 Hence, this Court has at its disposal two highly effective statutes designed to 5 deter persons from failure to appear and from committing offenses while on release.
6 Defendant MATTA is fully aware of these sanctions, and respectfully submits this Court
7 will not have to use them if Defendant MATTA is released on appropriate conditions.

8
9 CONCLUSION

10 Defendant MATTA asserts that he is not a flight risk or danger to the 11 community and respectfully requests that this Court release him upon terms and 12 conditions this Court deems appropriate.

13 Respectfully submitted this 26th day of July, 2005.
